

Press-Info Keenan Joyce:

Living and working in Bochum, Germany, Keenan Joyce looks back on 35 years of solo and band performance on stages in Germany, Ireland and France. At an early age of ten Keenan has embraced a passion for the six-stringed acoustic guitar, today the range of his both expressive and melodious voice exceeds the vocalist's physical height (5ft4) by far. His unique cover performances include, among others, folkloristic renditions of artists as different as Cat Stevens, Tracy Chapman, Simon & Garfunkel, Elton John or the early Chris de Burgh, as well as individual transitions of the charts' songs past and present. Along with his passionate detours to the world of traditional folklore, way beyond common clichés of dance and drink songs, Keenan Joyce offers an illustrious evening of songs with both musical surprise and profound background knowledge.
